UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

ARISTA MUSIC, ARISTA MUSIC LLC,
LAFACE RECORDS LLC, SONY MUSIC
ENTERTAINMENT, SONY MUSIC
ENTERTAINMENT US LATIN LLC, AND ZOMBA RECORDING LLC,

Plaintiffs,

v.

UNITED AIRLINES, INC.; INFLIGHT
PRODUCTIONS LTD.; and RIGHTSCOM
LTD.,

Defendants.

COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs Arista Music, Arista Music LLC, LaFace Records LLC, Sony Music Entertainment, Sony Music Entertainment US Latin LLC, and Zomba Recording LLC (collectively referred to as “Sony Music” or “Plaintiffs”), by and through their undersigned attorneys, allege as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This case relates to the ongoing and willful infringement of copyrighted sound recordings and music videos through an interactive, on-demand, in-flight music service, as well as a linear pre-programmed music service, operated by an airline company for the entertainment of its passengers without authorization from or compensation to the owners of the recordings and music videos that are reproduced and performed by the service.

2. Defendant United Airlines, Inc. (“United”) and its predecessor companies, working in concert with Defendants Inflight Productions Ltd. (“Inflight Productions”) and Rightscom Ltd. (“Rightscom”), (collectively “Defendants”) operate an interactive, on-demand, in-flight music service and a linear pre-programmed music service for the entertainment of passengers on United Airlines and/or Continental Airlines.

3. Upon information and belief, in order to create these in-flight music services, Defendants have, without authority, duplicated Plaintiffs’ copyrighted sound recordings and music videos. These infringing copies are then installed on servers located on board aircraft owned or operated by United or its predecessors, where they are used to transmit performances of Plaintiffs’ copyrighted sound recordings and music videos to passengers.

4. Defendants do not have any license or other form of authorization from Plaintiffs to reproduce or publicly perform any of Plaintiffs’ copyrighted sound recordings and music videos.

5. As a result of the foregoing, Defendants are liable for the infringement of Plaintiffs’ copyrights, either because they have directly engaged in infringing activities themselves or because one or more of them is secondarily liable for infringing activities undertaken by others.

6. The harm to Plaintiffs and their artists, who invest millions of dollars and enormous amounts of time and creative energy to produce and exploit the copyrighted works infringed by Defendants is both manifest and irreparable.

THE PARTIES

7. Plaintiff Arista Music is a New York partnership with its principal place of business in New York, New York.

8. Plaintiff Arista Records LLC is a Delaware limited liability company with its principal place of business in New York, New York.

9. Plaintiff LaFace Records LLC is a Delaware limited liability company with its principal place of business in New York, New York.

10. Plaintiff Sony Music Entertainment is a Delaware partnership with its principal place of business and headquarters in New York, New York.

11. Plaintiff Sony Music Entertainment US Latin LLC is a Delaware limited liability company with its principal place of business and headquarters in Coconut Grove, Florida.

12. Plaintiff Zomba Recording LLC is a Delaware limited liability company with its principal place of business in New York, New York.

13. Plaintiffs are among the largest and most respected record companies in the music business. Plaintiffs are the owners or exclusive United States licensees of sound recordings and music videos containing the performances of some of the most popular and successful recording artists of all-time, including Britney Spears, Carrie Underwood, Justin Timberlake, Kenny Chesney, Michael Jackson, and Paul Simon, to name just a few. Plaintiffs have invested and continue to invest significant money, time, effort, and creative talent to create, promote, sell, and license their sound recordings and music videos.

14. Plaintiffs own the copyrights and/or exclusive rights under the U.S. Copyright Act to exploit an extensive catalogue of popular sound recordings and music videos, including but not limited to those recordings listed in Exhibit A, attached hereto. Plaintiffs further own or possess exclusive rights to sound recordings that were initially “fixed” prior to February 15, 1972 (the “Pre-1972 Works”) and that are therefore subject to protection under state law, including those recordings listed in Exhibit B, attached hereto.

15. Plaintiffs sell, distribute and/or license their sound recordings and music videos for distribution in the form of CDs, DVDs, or other tangible media throughout the United States, including in New York. Plaintiffs also sell, distribute and/or license their sound recordings and music videos in the form of digital audio files through authorized Internet services, including iTunes, MySpace, Rhapsody, and Spotify, as well as directly to consumers.

16. Defendant United is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Chicago, Illinois. United is registered to do business and maintains offices and business operations in New York. On March 31, 2013, after a merger process beginning in 2010, United Airlines, Inc. was officially merged with Continental Airlines, Inc. to form one legal entity, which is now named United Airlines, Inc. As a result of that merger, United is the successor to all the rights and liabilities of its predecessor corporations that previously operated United Airlines and Continental Airlines, and it continues to operate the combined airline under the United name.

17. Defendant Inflight Productions is a company based in London, United Kingdom, and is a subsidiary of Advanced Inflight Alliance AG. Inflight Productions maintains offices throughout the world including in Los Angeles, California. Inflight Productions has created audio programs and managed the provision of musical content for airlines around the world, including for United Airlines and Continental Airlines.

18. Defendant Rightscom is a company based in London, United Kingdom. Rightscom is a consultancy specializing in rights management issues, both at the commercial and technical level. Rightscom has been retained by Inflight Productions to manage Inflight Productions' copyright obligations around the world, including for United Airlines and Continental Airlines.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

19. This is a civil action asserting claims of copyright infringement under the copyright laws of the United States. Accordingly, the Court has jurisdiction under 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.; 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question jurisdiction); and 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a) (jurisdiction over copyright actions). The Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' New York state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367 (supplemental jurisdiction).

20. Personal jurisdiction over Defendants is proper. First, Defendants engage in continuous and systematic business activities in New York. Second, Defendants transact business in New York, and contract to supply goods and services in New York in connection with the matters giving rise to this suit. Third, Defendants commit infringing acts outside of New York causing injury to Plaintiffs in New York. In connection therewith, Defendants regularly do or solicit business in New York causing injury to Plaintiffs in New York, and/or derive substantial revenue from goods used or services rendered in New York, and/or expect or reasonably should expect their infringing conduct to have consequences in New York, and derive substantial revenue from interstate commerce.

21. Venue in this District is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and/or 28 U.S.C. § 1400(a). Upon information and belief, a substantial part of the acts of the infringement complained of herein occurs or has occurred in this District. Further, Plaintiffs have their principal place of business in New York and in this District. Accordingly, Plaintiffs have been injured in New York as a result of Defendants' infringing conduct.

DEFENDANTS' INFRINGING CONDUCT

22. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 21 as if fully set forth herein.

23. Defendants offer an interactive, on-demand, in-flight music service, as well as a linear pre-programmed music service, to passengers of United Airlines and/or Continental Airlines. These in-flight music services employ unauthorized reproductions of Plaintiffs' sound recordings which are installed in servers located within United/Continental aircraft and thereafter used to transmit performances of Plaintiffs' sound recordings to United/Continental in-flight passengers either as a pre-programmed package or pursuant to the direct requests of those passengers.

24. Upon information and belief, Defendants have also been making Plaintiffs' copyrighted music videos available to passengers of United Airlines and/or Continental Airlines as part of these same music services. Although Plaintiffs have confirmed that Defendants have been copying and performing these music videos, Plaintiffs have not yet been provided with the titles of the infringed music videos, but will obtain them during discovery.

25. Initially, Plaintiffs were contacted by a representative from Defendant Rightscom, who explained that he had been retained by Defendant Inflight Productions, who in turn had been retained by various airline companies—including United and Continental—for the provision of in-flight musical content. The representative candidly acknowledged that Rightscom's and Inflight's provision of musical content for airlines "involves the reproduction of copyright[ed] musical works and sound recordings."

26. Critically, the representative further acknowledged that “it is going to be necessary for Inflight [through Rightscom] to contact the labels individually to put the necessary licenses in place, and I am contacting you to do so with Sony Music.”

27. From the time that Defendants acknowledged their need to obtain authorization from Plaintiffs for their use of Plaintiffs’ copyrighted sound recordings until the filing of this action, Plaintiffs and Defendants have been in communication relating to that issue. However, Plaintiffs never licensed or otherwise authorized Defendants’ use of the recordings. Nonetheless, during this entire period, Defendants have continued to offer their customers unlicensed access to Plaintiffs’ copyrighted works.

28. More recently, Sony Music learned about the existence of the interactive, on-demand, in-flight music service which involves the making of unauthorized reproductions and the transmission of performances of Plaintiffs’ copyrighted sound recordings and music videos on demand without any license, agreement, or other form of authorization from Plaintiffs.

29. Upon information and belief, Defendants have reproduced and performed thousands of Plaintiffs’ copyrighted sound recordings and music videos without a license or any other form of authorization from Plaintiffs. Non-exhaustive lists of Plaintiffs’ sound recordings that have been infringed by the Defendants are attached hereto as Exhibit A and Exhibit B. Plaintiffs note that their investigation into those sound recordings that have been infringed by Defendants is ongoing.

30. Defendants’ use of these recordings and music videos is a blatant violation of Plaintiffs’ rights under federal copyright law or New York state law, as applicable.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Infringement of Plaintiffs' Rights under the U.S. Copyright Act

31. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 30 as if fully set forth herein.

32. Without authorization, Defendants are making and/or aiding, encouraging, enabling, inducing, causing, materially contributing to, benefitting financially from (with the right and ability to control), and/or otherwise facilitating the making of unauthorized reproductions of Plaintiffs' copyrighted sound recordings and music videos in violation of 17 U.S.C. §§ 106(1) and 501.

33. Without authorization, Defendants are publicly performing and/or aiding, encouraging, enabling, inducing, causing, materially contributing to, benefitting financially from (with the right and ability to control), or otherwise facilitating the public performance of Plaintiffs' copyrighted sound recordings and music videos in violation of 17 U.S.C. §§ 106(1) and 501.

34. Defendants' infringement of Plaintiffs' sound recordings includes but is not limited to the representative list of copyrighted sound recordings listed in Exhibit A hereto.

35. Defendants' acts of infringement are knowing, willful and intentional, in disregard of and indifference to Plaintiffs' rights.

36. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' infringement of Plaintiffs' copyrights and exclusive rights under copyright, Plaintiffs are entitled to maximum statutory damages, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c), in the amount of $150,000 with respect to each work infringed, or such other amounts as may be proper under 17 U.S.C. § 504(c). Alternatively, at Plaintiffs' election, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), Plaintiffs are entitled to their actual damages, including Defendants' profits from the infringement, as will be proven at trial.

37. Defendants' conduct is causing and, unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause Plaintiffs great and irreparable injury that cannot be fully compensated or measured in money damages. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law. Accordingly, Plaintiffs are entitled to a preliminary and permanent injunction prohibiting infringement of Plaintiffs' copyrights and exclusive rights under copyright pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502.

38. Plaintiffs are entitled to their costs and reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

39. Plaintiffs are further entitled to the impoundment and destruction or other reasonable disposition of infringing copies of Plaintiffs' copyrighted sound recordings and music videos pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 503.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Common-Law Copyright Infringement for Pre-1972 Works

40. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 39 as if fully set forth herein.

41. Plaintiffs' Pre-1972 Works are subject to common-law copyright protection under the law of the State of New York. As the owner of valid common-law copyrights in Pre-1972 Works, Plaintiffs possess the exclusive rights to manufacture, reproduce, perform, sell, distribute, and otherwise exploit their Pre-1972 Works.

42. Without authorization, Defendants are reproducing and performing, or benefitting financially from, aiding, encouraging, enabling, inducing, causing, materially contributing to, or otherwise facilitating the reproduction and performance, of Plaintiffs' copyrighted sound recordings in violation of the law of the State of New York, including but not limited to the representative list of sound recordings listed in Exhibit B hereto.

43. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' knowing, willful and intentional copyright infringement, Plaintiffs are entitled to compensatory damages for the infringement of Plaintiffs' copyrighted Works, including but not limited to the representative list of copyrighted sound recordings listed in Exhibit B hereto, in such amounts as will be proven at trial, as well as punitive damages.

44. Defendants' conduct is causing and, unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause Plaintiffs great and irreparable injury that cannot fully be compensated or measured in money damages. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law. Accordingly, Plaintiffs are entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief prohibiting Defendants from further violating their rights in their Pre-1972 Works.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Unfair Competition as to Pre-1972 Works

45. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 44 as if fully set forth herein.

46. Plaintiffs possess exclusive ownership interests in and to their Pre-1972 Works and are engaged in the business of selling, distributing, and otherwise commercially exploiting their Pre-1972 Works, and licensing others to do the same. Plaintiffs have made a substantial investment of money, creative talents, and other resources in order to develop, market, promote, and commercially exploit their sound recordings.

47. Through the conduct described above, Defendants are violating Plaintiffs' rights in their Pre-1972 Works, including but not limited to those recordings listed in Exhibit B hereto, and are guilty of unfair competition under the common law of the State of New York. By reproducing, performing or otherwise commercially exploiting the Pre-1972 Works, or benefitting financially from, aiding, encouraging, enabling, inducing, causing, materially contributing to, or otherwise facilitating the unauthorized reproduction, performance or commercial exploitation of the Pre-1972 Works, Defendants compete directly with Plaintiffs and their lawful licensees, and further take advantage of and undermine Plaintiffs' substantial creative and financial investment in their Pre-1972 Works. Defendants are knowingly, willfully, and intentionally appropriating Plaintiffs' rights to their Pre-1972 Works. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiffs are entitled to compensatory damages in such amounts as will be proven at trial, as well as punitive damages.

48. Defendants' conduct is causing and, unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause Plaintiffs great and irreparable injury that cannot fully be compensated or measured in money damages. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law and are entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief prohibiting Defendants from further violating their rights in the Pre-1972 Works.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand a jury trial and pray for judgment against Defendants as follows:

1. For a preliminary and permanent injunction enjoining Defendants and Defendants' agents, servants, employees, officers, attorneys, successors, licensees, partners, and assigns, and all persons acting in concert or participation with each or any of them, from directly infringing, and/or benefitting financially from, aiding, encouraging, enabling, inducing, causing, materially contributing to, or otherwise facilitating the infringement of, any of Plaintiffs' copyrights or exclusive rights protected by the Copyright Act or common law, whether now in existence or hereafter created;

2. For the impoundment and destruction or other reasonable disposition of infringing copies of Plaintiffs' copyrighted sound recordings and music videos;

3. For Count 1, all damages to which Plaintiffs may be entitled, including Defendants' profits, in such amounts as may be found, or, in the alternative and at Plaintiffs' election, for statutory damages in the maximum amount allowed by law;

4. For Counts 2 and 3, compensatory damages in such amounts as will be proven at trial, as well as punitive damages;

5. For Plaintiffs' costs, including and reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504;

6. For prejudgment interest according to law; and

7. For such further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,
